

“Walking By Faith and Not Sight”

2 Cor 5:7

Introduction:

A. Bible Readings:

1. Rom 15:4
2. 1 Cor 10:6
3. Read: 2 Kings 6:8-17
 - a. Look especially at verses 16 &17
 - b. The difference between Elisha and his servant was a difference between FAITH and SIGHT.
4. 2 Cor 5:7
 - a. This statement is found in Paul’s context of talking about a Christian’s future after death . . . And what a wonderful future that will be.
 - b. Being assured of that now, we can have the assurance to walk securely through the problems and difficulties of this life.
5. Definition of terms:
 - a. “We” – God’s faithful people – Christians – the church, etc.
 - b. “Walk” – to pursue a course of action or way of life . . . How one moves along during his life.”
 - c. “Faith” – Believing and trusting God . . . Following His way and will daily.
 - d. “Sight” – Trusting in self and what can be perceived with the human senses.

B. What does walking by faith involve?

I. Walking By Faith Involves A Change

A. A change in self - 2 Cor 5:17

1. We call this:
 - a. Conversion
 - b. Becoming a Christian
 - c. Obeying the Gospel
2. Christians are brand new people on the inside . . . And the inside controls the outside.

3. At the time of conversion, one does not merely turn over a new leaf . . . He begins a new life under a new Master.
 4. He forfeits an old destiny (Hell) and gains a new destiny (Heaven)
- B. Three basic changes must occur in Scriptural conversion:
1. The HEART (affection) must be changed from the love of sin to the love of God.
 2. The LIFE (conduct) of a person must be changed from sin to righteousness.
 3. The STATE (relationship) of man must be changed from the realm of Satan's rule to the realm of God's kingdom.
- C. How is this done? . . . Through obeying the Gospel of Christ!
1. Hearing the gospel – Brings faith and faith changes the heart.
 2. Believing the Gospel – Leads to repentance.
 3. Repentance of sins – Changes life.
 4. Confession of Christ – Changes one's allegiance.
 5. Baptism for the remission of sins – Changes one's state or relationship.
 - a. He is not guilty anymore.
 - b. He is not lost anymore.
 - c. He is saved from his past sins.
 - d. He is added to the Lord's church by the Lord Himself - Acts 2:47
- D. Rom 10:17

II. Walking By Faith Involves Knowing . . . Believing And Obeying The Right Things

A. Prov 14:12

1. The path that seems right may offer many options and require few sacrifices.
2. Easy choices should make us take a second look.
3. The right choice often requires hard work and self-sacrifice.

4. Don't be enticed by apparent shortcuts that seem right and popular but are not to be found in the pages of God's Holy Word . . . The Bible.
- B. Obeying the right Book.
1. Not the writings of men . . . But the Bible. The mind of God in print.
 2. Many human creeds . . . One Bible!
- C. Obeying the right doctrine - Matt 15:9; 1 Tim 4:1; 2 Jn 9; 1 Tim 4:6
- D. Worshiping in the right way.

III. Walking By Faith Involves Maintaining Focus

- A. Read: Matt 14:22-33
1. So long as Peter was focused on Jesus, he was successfully walking on the waters of the Sea of Galilee.
 2. But when he began to focus on the winds and the waves, he began to sink.
 3. What happened? He changed his focus . . . He lost His focus. His faith wavered when he realized what he was doing.
 4. We will not be walking on water, but we may walk through tough situations in our Christian sojourn here.
 - a. If we focus on the waves of difficult circumstances around us and take our eyes off of the One Whom we serve, we, too, may begin to despair and sink.
 - b. To maintain your faith when situations are difficult, focus on the power of God rather than your own inadequacies - Heb 13:5
 5. Although we start out with good intentions, sometimes our faith falters.
 - a. This doesn't mean we have failed.
 - b. When Peter's faith faltered, he reached out to Christ, the only One who could help.
 - 1) He could have reached out to the boat . . . But it was too late to help.
 - 2) He could have reached out to the eleven . . . But they could not help.

- c. Although he was afraid, he still looked to Christ . . . And Christ reached out to help him overcome his situation.
- d. When you grow apprehensive about the troubles around you and begin to doubt your ability to see it through . . . Reach out to the Father who loved you so much that He gave His own Son to die for you.

B. Do Not . . .

1. Take your eyes off God . . . There is not another.
2. Take your eyes off the Bible . . . It is the only Book God has given.
3. Take your eyes off the Gospel . . . It is God's power to salvation - Rom 1:16
4. Take your eyes off the Church . . . All the saved are in it.
5. Take your eye off Worship . . . Our God must be worshipped.
6. Take your eyes off faithfulness . . . The devil will lead you astray.
7. Take your eyes off truth . . . Only it can make us free - Jn 8:32
8. Take your eye off Heaven . . . It is the finish line for the race we are running.
9. Lose your focus . . . Keep your focus on the One who said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me - Jn 14:6

C. Do not ever lose your focus as a Christian.

1. The winds and waves of a religiously divided world will distract & confuse you.
2. The winds and waves of man-made churches will distract & confuse you.
3. The winds and waves of human creeds and man-written religious doctrines will distract & confuse you.
4. The winds and waves of self-proclaimed religious leaders will distract & confuse you.
5. The winds and waves of Satan's efforts to reclaim your soul will distract & confuse you.
6. The winds and waves of large numbers believing and teach certain things will distract & confuse you.

7. The winds and waves of discouragement and disappointments will distract & confuse you.
- D. Keep your eyes and faith focused on Your Heavenly Father.

Conclusion:

A. Walking by faith:

1. Involves a change.
2. Involves knowing, believing, and following the right things.
3. Involves maintaining focus.

B. Are you walking by sight? Or, are you walking by faith? Faith honors God - - - And God honors faith!

C. Illustration: One night a house caught fire and a young boy was forced to flee to the roof. The father stood on the ground below with outstretched arms, calling to his son, "Jump! I'll catch you." He knew the boy had to jump to save his life. All the boy could see, however, was flame, smoke, and blackness. As can be imagined, he was afraid to leave the roof. His father kept yelling: "Jump! I will catch you." But the boy protested, "Daddy, I can't see you." The father replied, "But I can see you and that's all that matters." God can see you . . . And that is all that matters. Have faith to do what is right!
